

Friends of Monomoy National Wildlife Refuge

Helping to preserve one of Chatham's treasures

Welcome to the first edition of our newsletter. Through this publication, we hope to keep everyone up-to-date with what's going on at the refuge and let you know how you can get involved. Also, check out our new website at www.friendsofmonomoy.org

We have several events planned for December, including an open house at our new location 791 Main Street! Check out this list and we hope to see you there!

- Friday December 12th-14: Come see our brand new visitor's center in downtown Chatham when we open our doors for Chatham's Christmas by the Sea Stroll Our Open House begins on Friday 4:00-7:00pm, then continues on Saturday 8:00-5:00pm and Sunday 10:00-5:00pm
- Saturday, December 13th: Join John Hanlon for a bird walk 8:00-10:00am
- Sunday, December 21st: Winter solstice bird walk (waiting list only) with Fi Lowry from 9:30-11:30am
- Thursday, January 1st: New Years Day Sunrise walk with Mary Hake from 7:00-9:00am

* All walks begin at Fred's Shed in the parking lot at the end of Wilkis Way on Morris Island in Chatham. Walks are free, but attendees must register for walks on our website, in the "Events" section.
